NARRATIVE:

Todd Curven has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 24. His convictions include the possession of explosives in public, first degree burglary, inflicting corporal injury on a spouse, grand theft of money, assault, theft, vehicle theft with prior prison, carrying a concealed weapon in a vehicle, receiving stolen property, transporting controlled substances, being under the influence of a controlled substance, violations of parole and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 4 year term for vehicle theft with prior prison. Curven was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 04, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Curven qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for vehicle theft with prior prison is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
